City Of Hamlin Won The State Loving Cup For Most Outstanding Water System Improvements 1940

Here is some more good news: It is quite gratifying to the City authorities of Hamlin, to the citizenship and especially to the Herald Editor to learn that Hamlin has been awarded the "Annual Loving Cup" for the year 1940 because of the great improvements in a better water plant for the city.

Below we quote a letter which is self explanatory:

Austin, Texas
February 14, 1941

Hon. J. L. Culbertson,
Mayor,
Hamlin, Texas

Dear Mr. Culbertson:

From the nominations of our regional engineers located at various points in the State our annual Texas Honor Roll for Water Works Systems has been compiled for the purpose of commending certain municipalities for their outstanding accomplishments in the water works field. Out of the seven hundred and fifty municipalities in the State only one city was chosen to be given the honor for having

"The water plant completing the greatest improvement to the plant."

This decision was most difficult to make and involved considerable study and review of the records submitted to this office, and the selection was then made on the basis of actual accomplishments at the close of the year.

Since the receipt of this honor carries with it the awarding of a loving cup which is to take place at the Texas Water Works Short School on the night of Thursday, February 20, we, therefore, hope that either you or your representative will be able to attend the Water Works and Sewage Short School banquet on this date in order to receive this trophy.

We want you to know that this distinct compliment has been paid to your water system as the result of a definite achievement in competition with all of the other systems and plants in the State. This is a record of which you may be justly very proud, and, therefore, any publicity or notice that you wish to give to this selection will meet with our approval.

Very truly yours,
GEO. W. COX, M. M.
State Health Officer

WENT FOR THE CUP

Wednesday, Mayor Joe L. Culbertson and Water Supt. Bill Rountree left for College Station to be present at the big banquet on Thursday night, and to accept the "Cup" so much merited by the City of Hamlin.

Only those who knew well the water situation in Hamlin before the new plant and fine water supply was accomplished, can realize the pride that the people now feel over having the best.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Words fail me as I attempt to write this article this week. The complete surprise received last Sunday when the church presented us with the new Chevrolet has left me unable to express my feelings. I feel that no pastor ever had a greater people to work with. It was not that we deserved such a gift, but you did this because of the wonderful cause we try to represent in our community. It is my desire to lodge myself to this community to represent this cause in a greater way. The community at large has been very kind, and we are grateful to you.

Next Sunday we have our special yemen's service. Last fourth Sunday we had an unusually large number of men present, and we hope men will be present this coming Sunday. We had 319 in Sunday school last Sunday. Hope we can increase this number next Sunday. Our training Union had a big jump at Sunday night. Don't forget to come at 6:30.

Borden Celebrating

Gail, Texas—Combined with the Borden Co. 4-H Livestock Show at Gail, Texas, March 22, 1941, Borden County and Gail will celebrate the 50th anniversary of the organization of the county and founding of the town. Featuring the event will be a big free barbecue and free rodeo. Schools of the county will render special broadcast programs.

The livestock show gives every indication of being the best of the history of the county.

At a mass meeting attended by citizens from all parts of the county committees to handle various details of the celebration were appointed. At last year's livestock show the attendance reached 3,500. This year the attendance is expected to be much larger.

NEW RESIDENTS

Herbert M. Barnes and family of Haskell have moved to Hamlin to make their home. Mr. Barnes has a position with the Terrell Grocery. He says he likes Hamlin very much and wants to become a real fixture in this community. They have apartments in the Magee duplex. In order to quickly learn his new home surroundings, Mr. Barnes becomes a regular subscriber of the Herald, which is a good sign. Congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Barnes—hope you will enjoy living in Hamlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Dodson were called to Tyler Sunday by the serious illness of Mr. Dodson's sister, Mrs. W. D. Goyer. They found her greatly improved, and perhaps out of danger. Mr. and Mrs. Dodson and little daughter, Barbara Jean returned late Monday night.

BAGS WHITE QUAIL

North Texas appears to produce more than its share of albino quail. During the last several years four or five have been reported from that section of the state. The latest is one killed by Hugh Dow of Fort Worth while hunting on his farm near Lake Worth.

"When I first saw the white quail my thought was that it was a small chicken which had taken up its abode in a covey of Bobwhites," Dow said. "However, I realized just as I shot the bird that it was a white quail."

The bird was white with the exception of a brown spot on each wing about the size of a half dollar.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cole spent the week-end in Anson with Mr. Coles' mother, Mrs. Abe Cole.

Miss Louise Proctor left Wednesday night for View to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Long for the week.

Charles Prater, who has been in Texas A. & M. College, has enrolled as a student in Draughton's Business College in Abilene. He is taking a course in General Business Administration.

Mrs. J. V. Milsap has returned from Washington City, where she had been for the past three months with her daughter, Mrs. Sallie Johnston. She says the Washington people have colds, the flu and everything just like they do in West Texas, only worse. She shows the effect of flu very plainly and also that she is glad to be back home in good old Hamlin.

Robert Willingham

Buried Last Friday

Robert F. Willingham, whose home was in Abilene, 1133 Vine St., and formerly of the Swedonia community west of Hamlin, was found dead in his room at the Hilton Hotel on Thursday morning of last week.

Robert Willingham grew to manhood in this community, but the past ten years or so he had engaged in the oil lease business and had resided most of the time in Abilene.

Information is that he had registered early Wednesday night at the Hilton and that about 2:30 Thursday morning he had called a bell boy and asked him to get a doctor. He failed to answer a 7:30 call and about two hours later he was found dead by a friend. Final conclusions were that death came from natural causes, perhaps from a form of heart involvement. It will be recalled that Robert had been in a serious automobile wreck when he ran into a standing freight train one night in the edge of Hamlin several years ago, and it is thought that possibly injuries received then finally proved fatal.

Robert F. Willingham, was 34 years of age, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Willingham, pioneer citizens of western Fisher county. He is survived by a wife and three children, Shari Ann age 9, Bobette, 8, and Martha age 1 year. Also two brothers, Tarleton Willingham of Hamlin and Paul Willingham of Clyde and one sister, Mrs. Blakeley Campbell of Hamlin.

Brief services were held at a funeral home in Abilene and concluded at the graveside in East Cemetery in Hamlin, Friday.

CHURCH OF CHRIST

You are invited to attend all of our services. We extend to you a special invitation to attend a film to be shown at the Church of Christ next Monday night at 7:30.

Did you know that Jesus said: "Blessed are the meek for they shall inherit the earth?" People of the world are ready to laugh at a meek person, but Christ has pronounced a blessing on him. If we desire this blessing, then, we must not retaliate when someone does something injurious to us. We must be able to take insult calmly. We must not be harsh, but must be milk, kind and gentle. Among the selfishness, hardness and violence of the world let us be of a meek and quiet spirit and we shall receive the blessing of Christ. Remember that the meek person will be in subjection to the will of God and live in obedience to His word.

Minister Luther G. Savage

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Vaught, who are temporarily living in Stamford, but of Hobart, Oklahoma, came over Monday to look over Hamlin again. They have two nice brick business houses here, one occupied by the Clover Farm Store, and the other occupied by the "first" York Store. They should buy a suitable lot in Hamlin and build a nice home and settle down in a good town.

Women's Art Exhibit Drew Large Crowds

The women and girls' exhibit last Saturday, Feb. 15, at the Carmichael Ford Company in connection with the 4-H Club and F.F.A. Fat Stock Show, in Hamlin was crowded with interested visitors all day.

Ted Russell, Harold Bonner and Craig Elmore and Miss Gladys Martin were superintendents of this part of the show.

The judging was done by Miss Ethel Rowell, Home Economics Instructor of Stamford and by Miss Elvira Marr and Miss Dorothy Johnson, Home Economics Instructors of Anson.

Prizes and ribbons were given by the Hamlin business men. Prizes were awarded to the clubs receiving the most ribbons in the women's work and the Avoca Home Demonstration Clubs tied for 1st place and Comper won 3rd place.

The exhibits included tufted and crocheted bed spreads, quilts, rugs, pillow slips, trays, other crafts, cookies and feather comforts.

Mrs. Taylor Owens of the Hanna Home Demonstration Club demonstrated "Making Trays" in the afternoon, and the 4-H Club girls exhibited their luncheon cloths and ribbons and prize money were awarded to the following:

JAVELINA CRIPPLES FOREMAN

A South Texas ranch foreman who for years warned all hunters on his place to be careful of javelinas and be sure they were stone dead before approaching them after shooting them, was injured seriously shortly before the close of the hunting season by a wounded javelina.

The foreman was accompanying a man who shot a bear. The foreman warned him to be sure the animal was dead. The hunter hit it over the head with a club. Then the foreman started to cut the bear's throat. The javelina reared up, and clamped down on his hand and they had to cut the muscles away before they could loosen the hog's hold on the foreman's hand. He spent several days in the hospital and has three broken bones in his hand.

Texas agriculture netted farmers $25,000,000 more in 1940 than in 1939, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

J. C. Turner Jr., came up from Camp Bowie last Saturday for the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Turner. J. C. is already looking and stepping like a soldier. He promises to write all about camp life in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Floyd and little daughter of Ballenger spent the past week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McClung. Mrs. McClung accompanied them home to spend two or three weeks with them. John says he's batching and does not mind cooking but the eating is not so hot.

On March 1st and 2nd the Sixth Annual Azalea Trail of the River Oaks Garden Club of Houston will be held. Twelve distinctive Azalea gardens, ranging from one to 12 acres in size, will be open. The hours will be 2:00 until 6:00 P. M. on Saturday and 10:00 A. M. until 6:00 P. M. on Sunday. The tickets for the Azalea Trail are $1.50 and entitle the bearer to visit twelve gardens. A ticket may be shared by several persons, but is only entitled to twelve garden admissions, that is, two persons may each visit six gardens or twelve persons visit one each.

Tickets may be secured at any of the garden gates marked by a large lawn parasol.

Each spring, many Texans travel to other states to see the Azaleas, not realizing the exceptional opportunities that Houston's Azalea Trail offers. Thousands of Azaleas, in addition to Camellias, Dogwood, Redbud, and countless spring flowers and shrubs, abound in the beautiful gardens of these River Oaks estates.

For further information, write Mrs. Birdsall Briscoe, 2317 Claremont Lane, Houston, Texas.

AZALEA TIME—

Not in West Texas but down in Houston it is "Azalea Time." It seems just any part of Texas can cash in on some beautiful flower, and so on March 1 and 2nd, Houston's "Sixth Annual Azalea Trail" is on display. The Herald Editor has a complimentary ticket to visit these "Azalea Gardens," and the ticket calls for twelve of them. Nothing could please us better than to browse around in the flower gardens of South Texas for a while. Listen to this:

"Each spring the Azalea Trail winds its way in brilliance through lovely gardens which also feature Camellias, Redbud, Dogwood, Magnolias, and numerous other tropical shrubs and trees. Thousands of Daffodils, Iris, Hyacinths, Calla lilies, Tulips, Wisteria and Bougainvillea add color and vividness to these early spring gardens against a background of stately moss-draped trees."

"This Trail of wonder leads me To gardens green and cool; Where hanging moss on stately trees Is reflected in a pool—"

THINKING OF FLOWERS—

This week Hamlin folks should feel self-conscious about flowers and lawns and beauty around their homes.

Hamlin has the distinction of making the greatest water improvements of any city of any size in Texas during 1940, and was awarded a "Loving Cup" at A. & M. College Thursday night, so if it takes water to make flowers, Hamlin should also have lots of lovely flowers from here on.

This is the first spring "approach" this little city has ever had when there is no doubt about having water for every purpose, and best of all, this year we have a quality of water that excels almost any town in Texas.

To have flowers and verdant beauty in the summer months it takes oodles of work in the early spring. Fine water can not do the whole trick. Planning, preparing and work count as much as water. A little work with reasonable application of good soft water will cause the black dirt in Hamlin to create plenty of beauty. The only thing that will prevent complete enjoyment of green carpeted lawns surrounded by odiferous flower scents wafted by cool summer night breezes is the fact that lawns are too large to be screened to keep out the mosquitos. What do YOU think about that?

NEW CITIZENS—

When a new citizen comes into a community and within a few days calls around at the newspaper office or meets the editor of the home newspaper and becomes a subscriber, it is one of the best signs that such a fellow is going to make the community a good citizen. Such a man wants to know and be known. He wants to learn his community and shows an interest in its affairs. He is not one who snarls at everything that is not as big as it was in the place he came from. He takes his new home as a matter of fact and shows that he wants to help make it better while trying to make a living in it. Yes, there are several signs that help establish one as a real citizen in a community and taking the home paper is ONE of them.

GAME ODDITIES

RAISING QUAIL IN CITY

You don't always have to go to the country to find quail. Texas Game Department, biologists are working with the State School for Deaf Children in Austin. School authorities found two coveys of quail on the 57 acre tract upon which the school buildings are located on South Congress street. It was found the birds had sufficient cover for protection, but needed food. Now the children of the school are planting proper food for quail, such as red-top cane and German millet, and will observe the progress of the birds.

WHY COTTONSEED CAKE?

Texas' Game Department has trapped more than 500 deer this season for stocking of areas suitable for game, but from which deer have been shot out. It has been found that cottonseed cake is one of the best lures for getting deer

Need Laxative? Take All-Vegetable One

Don't let impatience lead you into harsh measures for the relief of constipation!

There's no use, for a little spicy, all-vegetable BLACK-DRAUGHT, taken by simple directions, will gently persuade your bowels.

Taken at bedtime, it generally allows time for a good night's rest. Morning usually brings punctual, satisfying relief from constipation and its symptoms such as headaches, biliousness, sour stomach, no appetite or energy.

into the traps and state and federal biologists are pondering the question of why cottonseed cake will lure Texas deer. It does not work in other states.

Mistletoe is the favorite deer bait in South Carolina. Texas deer are particular and will not respond to it. Apples, peanuts, corn, milo maize and oak and sweetbark browse have also been used as bait, but with a little success in Texas, while other states report excellent results.

The most logical reason for Texas deer liking cottonseed cake is that ranchers feed it to their cat-

QUAIL BATHES IN FLOWER POT

Leave it to denizens of the wild to find a way to do things. The area surrounding Houston has had much rain over a period of several weeks and there were few dry places left in the countryside. However, that didn't deter a quail on the ranch of Bill Freeman. The bird discovered a large flower pot on the porch of the Freeman home and was observed by Mr. Freeman, Bill Walker, outdoor editor of the Houston Post, and a state game warden, taking a dust bath on the front porch. The bird, according to Mr. Freeman, uses the flower pot regularly.

PIPERS GO SNOOPING

For a real kick, have Tommy Hill read you his theme on "Taking Care of a Baby." Honestly, I think he really knows how.

What three seniors have been giving a little Sophomore and Junior lessons on "How to Get Your Man and Hold Him." Confidentially, I think it's all a mistake.

What could have been the big attraction at the basket ball game that caused so many girls to attend? Could it have been the pretty red suits, or was it the boys that were wearing them?

Mr. Morton's patience has no end. In fact, his most embarrassing moment was recovering a dreaded bottle from a bashful girl's locker. Just ask him.

Why has that forlorn look crept into "Dubby" Wilemon's eyes? Is it possible a certain girl has gone to Houston?

Ask Mary Jo Price why she did not come to school Monday. She'll say she was dizzy—Hmmm — we wonder.

What is wrong with Ralph Dean? Could it be an inferiority complex? He just can't shake hands in peace.

My, what a woman can do! Miss Whiteley certainly has an influence over some of those big huskies that play foot ball when she herds them into study hall.

Dorothy Routh has become famous for her sneeze. In fact, every one runs when she gets that certain look on her face.

We always knew Coach Smith was patriotic. Just the other morning he played "The Star Spangled Banner," while his entire class stood up or was he just making them answer questions before they could sit down?

Ask G. W. Nichols what Junior lives so far from home he has to walk home with her every night after play practice.

What popular basket ball player (No. 8) sends love notes to his girl at Anson by the Hamlin Assistant Coach?

It is just amazing how "Roimeo" Turner does the "dames." Gosh, Turner, don't you think three dates in one night is enough?

PIPERS NUDGE MUSTANGS

Yep, those green and white clad boys from H. H. S. really showed their ardent fans how basket ball is played in the Piper Gym, last Monday night. Led by the offensive star, Captain Don Coles, the Pipers unleashed a scaring attack in the last half that left the red and white Mustangs from Sweetwater spell-bound. The Pipers trailed 16 to 9 at half-time. It was a different story in the second half, for Coles, Petty and Dean made the Sweetwater lads look sick! Dribbling, pivoting, screening and anything in the book of basket ball was used by the Pipers. The game was marked by roughness. Three of the Mustangs fouled out, and one Piper, Coles, led the scoring spree with 19 points and the final score read, Hamlin 30, Sweetwater 25.

GEORGE WASHINGTON

By Clara Spratlen

In a few more days we Americans will again celebrate the birthday of George Washington, the father of our country. It would be interesting to know George Washington's opinion of the United States and the world today and to hear from his lips the thoughtful judgment of how far we have fallen short of the ideals he set for us when he started the young nation on its amazing career. Unfortunately this great wisdom is withheld and we can only study the principles he talked and acted. No better time can be appointed for this study than the anniversary of his birth.

We Americans sometimes have George Washington idealized. He was one of the greatest personalities of his many succeeding generations. His actions, words, and decisions were good more often than they were otherwise. He was a human as we are, but he had more human strength—and fewer human weaknesses. One historian says of him, "His own self-mastery was a living lesson to democracy with its ill repute for turbulence. No more fitting ideal of manhood could have been chosen for the new republic. The absence of a mean ambition, the one desire of serving well his country and his fellow men, the faithfulness that could not be driven from its task through jealousy or resentment—these were the traits that gave him a unique and solitary place among the world's heroes."

Washington has come down to us, through two centuries, not as a half mythical, demigod, but as a courageous, strong, balanced, patient, moral, and an intensely human being. Washington's character and record do not need our creation of a semi-divine to assure and preserve his greatness. All Americans should attempt to learn something of the splendid traits that set him apart, and try to imitate him.

ENGLISH III CLASSES FINISH HOUSE OF SEVEN GABLES

Hawthorne's "House of Seven Gables," a wonderful book indeed! Probably everyone has heard of it or maybe you have seen the show by that name.

The students of Junior English have written character studies on these outstanding characters: Hepzibah, the old spinster who is faded, rusty-jointed, gaunt, dismal and sorrowful, always dressed in a long waisted silk dress with a horrible turban on her head; Clifford, who was accused of killing his uncle, and sent to prison for life but came back in thirty years with a very childish warp; Judge Pyncheon, the only remaining Pyncheon who was rich. He was very aristocratic, also strong-willed, and iron-hearted; also Phoebe Pyncheon, a young, rosy and very sweet girl of seventeen who comes to live with Hepzibah; and Holgrave, who is a degenerate typist and who turns out to be a Maule.

The setting takes place in a New England town, Salem, Mass. The story is of an old house which the Pyncheon family has inhabited for many years. Judge Pyncheon, an old money-mad man, finds out about a deed that will make him an income of immeasurable wealth. He keeps bothering Hepzibah and Clifford until one day he gets excited and dies in the mysterious way that all the Pyncheons die.

I think that the book is one of the best I have ever read and I believe every student should read it sometime during his high school days.

JUNIOR PIPERS WIN AGAIN

The improving Junior quintet blasted the Junior Mustangs from Sweetwater off the court when the Piperettes displayed a variety of passing that made the High School Varsity sit up and take notice. Led by Joe Sam Gray, Piper guard, the aggregation wound up with a 20 to 13 decision.

JUNIORS PRODUCE "PROBLEM" FATHER" TONIGHT

Tonight, brings with it the production of "Problem Father," the Junior play, to be given at 7:30 in the Hamlin High school auditorium. Admission is 15c and 25c.

The play is again this year under the direction of Mrs. Hefflin Miller. It is a three act comedy farce with laughs to last a year. The story centers around Sheldon Tupper Wentworth, lovable but eccentric author. Somewhere Sheldon got the idea the natural posture of man is on all-fours. He gives his family and their friends a lot of trouble trying to persuade them that they should try this new idea of his. The trouble that the children, Ken and Barbara, have in attempting to make Sheldon a normal father gives the play its name.

Every character in the play furnishes laughs and the action is hilarious. Lulu, the maid, confuses the whole family with the speech defect of "honking" when she begins to talk. Grandma, truly a "lady of the old school" does not approve of her daughter's husband and lets him know it in no uncertain terms. Finally the children send for their Uncle George, who is the only one who can do anything with their father. The club ladies offer a picture of typical women who want to see what their neighbor's business is all about, especially if there is a family skeleton anywhere.

There are also entertaining specialties for the intermission.

SENIORS TURN OUT TO BE BUMS

Last Friday a group of seniors, dressed in old clothes, went bumming. The point was to beg for work and then put the money in the class treasury. Every place you looked, bums were washing windows, dishes, cars, babies, and anything that would bring in the money. Surprised looks greeted the seniors at every door and many were not recognized.

A prize was offered for the person that looked the most like a bum. R. A. Dean and Jack Ellison placed first and shared the prize.

Another prize was offered to the car that made the most money. Two cars placed first so the prize was awarded to the Senior sponsors, Miss Loucille Willis and Mr. Clyde Smith.

Refreshments were served to the bums at the city park. The refreshments consisted of hot dogs, chocolate, pickles, onions, and valentine cookies. The Seniors were well repaid for their services by placing $15.45 in their class treasury.

The chaperones for the occasion were Mrs. Vera Nobles, Mrs. M. T.

Hudson, Miss Loucille Willis, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith.

STUDENTS TO TAKE PART IN DECLAMATION CONTEST

With 28 entries, the declamation contest is arousing unusual interest among the students of Hamlin High school. The preliminaries will be held on March 12, in the High school auditorium, at four o'clock, at which time the 3 best contestants in each division will be selected to enter the finals. The final contest will be held March 14, at 7:30 P. M. The public is invited to attend both of these contests. The variety in the content of the selections to be given by these students promises interesting entertainment.

The students entering these contests are as follows:

Senior Girls: Joyce Hudson, Virginia Hampton, Shirley Barnes, Marie Holland, Lois Brady, Eleanor Stephens, Lola Faye Meyers, Zelma Green, Lorena Stephens, Ethel Bell Neal, Selma Hassen, Herbie Faye Johnston, and Bobbie Tims.

Senior Boys: B. L. Smith, Jimmy Clements, Richard Young, Milton Fletcher, Billy Calhoun, and Joe Don Dickey.

Junior Girls: Betty Lou York, Billie Dean Dunlap, Billy Jean Holland, La Rue Kite, Hortense Phenix, Lillie Mahaffey, and Bobby Wilson.

Junior Boys: Larry McCoy, Glen Richardson and Alfred Adams.

THE SNEAKER

A new romance is in bloom. Minnie Lee Elkins seems to delight in calling Bryan Phenix pet names as "Grandpa." He doesn't seem to mind at all.

Gee! Could it be that Floyd Smith has finally found a girl to his taste? Anyhow he was with Mary Dean Huling, Saturday night.

Two of the Falcon members seemed terrible out of place or embarrassed in the drug store the other night. Wonder what the matter was?

The Sneaker was all wrong about Bill Scott and Wanda Bowen. It seems there is another one and his initials are L. H. S. We have a hunch that it will be the "Third Finger, Left Hand," with Wanda Bowen before long.

There are about six or seven sophomore and freshman boys who wish Billy Jean Holland would make up her mind. Keep going, boys, maybe she will someday.

The boys of Hamlin High wish to thank the girls for the good times we were shown during Corrigan week-end. We really enjoyed it.

Rotarians Entertained

Rotaryanns In

Valentine Party

The Hamlin Rotary Club enjoyed the season's most delightful event of the year, last week when they held "open house" for their Rotaryanns at a Banquet-Valentine-Party on Tuesday evening at the Morgan Hotel.

Only a few invited guests and invited guest entertainers were present, besides the regular membership of the Club.

When the banquet hall was opened, a "Valentine Paradise" was visible from walls, ceiling, and tables, with the noted colors of the day predominating in tiny pot plants and hearts. The decorations for the occasion were developed by two Rotaryanns, Mrs. J. E. Moody and Mrs. Frank Waggoner.

The outstanding features of the evening were the humorous remarks of the presiding officer, President Ivy Witt of the Club. Then a sing-song of old sweetheart tunes was led by Band Director Clyde Smith, who closed this part of the program with a solo, "Those Endearing Charms."

Broken hearts, severed hearts, mutilated hearts, played a great part too. It proved a "heart jigsaw" game when disconnected hearts were passed out and instructions were to reunite them in their original form and beauty. This was a task in which the Rotarians were excelled very much by the Rotaryanns.

The guest artists, Misses Mary Marguerite Nobles, Ruby Herr and Betty York, presented a valentine playlet. This was introduced by Miss Nobles, and delightfully carried out by Misses Herr and York.

An evening of this much delight passed all too quickly and adieu and good nights were said sincerely by every one present.

The Hoot Owl Bridge Club

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Barrow were host and hostess to the members of the Hoot Owl Bridge Club on Thursday evening of last week.

High score was counted up for Mrs. Bob Barrow and Grogan Turner.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs.

Bill Rountree, Mr. and Mrs. Grogan Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Barrow, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gilbreath, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. McBride and the host and hostess.

On Thursday Night

Mildred Barrow, library employee, was honoree at a dinner given by Miss Margaret Bierschwale, head librarian, Thursday night at Miss Bierschwale's home. The other guests at the dinner were Marian Martin, Bobby Deane Everett, and Stella Nix.

The dinner table was decorated in red and white with a centerpiece of red flowers surrounded by colonial bouquets of handkerchiefs and candy hearts. The delicious meal, cooked by Miss Bierschwale, consisted of tomato juice cocktail, fried chicken, stuffed potatoes, English peas, tomatoes, and ice cream-cherry pie.—From the J-Tac, John Tarleton College.

"Build-Up" Relief Explained to Women

A simple method has saved many women a lot of suffering!

It is based on the fact that headaches, nervousness, cramp-like pain are often symptoms of functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition.

Help for this condition so often follows the use of CARDUI, because it usually increases the appetite and the flow of gastric juice; thus aids digestion and helps build physical resistance. Usual result is less periodic distress.

Many who take CARDUI a few days before and during "the time" have found this helps ease periodic discomfort. Women have used CARDUI for more than 50 years!

A BOY—3 SHOTS EQUAL 2 BUCKS

Stories of the recent deer hunting season continue to trickle in. One of the best of them has 11-year-old Judson Hargrove as its hero. The lad killed two large bucks within a 2-minute period and needed only three shots to get his limit of deer.

Young Judson was hunting with his Dad. Suddenly he saw a big buck, asked his father where to shoot it and upon being told to hit the deer right behind the shoulder, he fired. The deer fell. Then another buck jumped up, headed toward the Hargrove's nearby motor car and the lad downed him with his third shot in two minutes. The bucks were six and eight pointers, according to the Pharr Press.

Leo Parker has been employed at the Gyp mill.

A bridal shower was sponsored by the 4-H club girls at the Methodist church one day last week for Mrs. Amel Rector. Before her marriage she was Flora Lee Parker.

Miss Peggy Darden of Abilene spent the week end with Bess Darden in McCaulley.

Mrs. Bill Wicker and son Gene are spending the week in Abilene with Mrs. Wicker's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bishop were week end visitors in Wichita Falls.

Roy Hemmingway filled the pulpit at the Baptist church last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Miles have been visiting their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Stephenson in New Mexico.

The Home Demonstration Club will meet in the home of Mrs. Ellis Elvins Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Miers spent the day in Hamlin last Saturday, and while there they took in the Stock Show.

Well, folks we are glad to be home again from the Camp, even if it isn't but for Sunday night. You know there is always something to take the joy out of life. For instance, Saturday night in Abilene, on the Albany road on the outskirts of the city, this scribe was driving on a concrete bridge and behold, we met a truck and the driver failed to dim his lights and the bridge failed to duck and the results were that a perfectly good Pontiac was smashed until it makes us sick to think of it. However, we are thankful we are here to tell the tale, but our family car is really messed up. Estimated damage was about $125.00. Thanks be that we had a little insurance.

When we run short of a little home news, we taper off with news from Camp Berkeley. So here goes a few Pot Shots from the camp:

Sitting in our office in the parts house we make a few notes of what we see going on. Here 'tis: Tire blows out on truck loaded with gravel right at the front door of the parts house. Axle breaks on another truck loaded with gasoline. Electrician gets hold of hot wire—result: here comes the first aid wagon and takes the poor fellow to a hospital and last reports are that his condition is serious. Sand blowing and wind 55 miles per hour and are we getting our craws full? Cars fly by at a high rate of speed and everything and everybody seem to be on the run. Across the street the side walls of the camp theatre are just about to cave in from the wind. Carpenters rush to prop the walls, and so far they are not down. Tire man drives up with a truck loaded with new tires. Foreman of parts house gets a salesman told. Reason: Salesman failed to get the parts to camp at designated time.

First Lieutenant Kuntz is one of the busiest men at camp. Works early and late and seems to never tire. A fine fellow and my boss. All office employees of C. Q. M. gets a half a day off on Lincoln's birthday. Tire and wheel stolen off of J. I. Parker's car in front of his boarding house while he sleeps off a hard day's work at camp.

O-O-O-O

War is so uncalled for in a world where people are supposed to be civilized. If it were not for a few dictators who wish to rule by the sword then we would have peace. What does it take to create a lasting peace? We wish we knew the answer. Every day we hear some one remark: "Isn't war a silly thing?" And besides being down right silly, it's a brutal, murderous thing, and if a community can get by without fusses and fights, then why won't the same thing work with nations? To be frank, neighbor, it's a lot better to be prepared for any and all emergencies. Yes, and by being prepared, other nations will think and figure a long time before they tackle us. The scripture would not be fulfilled unless we have wars and rumors of wars. We are hard-shell enough to believe that "What is to be, will be." But we do agree with the person who said: "Isn't war silly?"

A DARDEN-O-GRAM

It Pays to take the Herald

Foy E. Wallace Jr., Minister of the Church of Christ of Oklahoma City, a well known evangelist, visited the Hamlin Church of Christ the past Tuesday night. Twenty-six years ago Evangelist Wallace held a meeting in Hamlin. He still remembered several people here whom he had met in that day.

Sports-minded University of Texas co-eds are disproving the old axiom that "girls are sissies." Entries in women's intramurals at the State school this winter—competitive sports between student clubs—have totaled 4,134 to date.

Early Texas wasn't very quiet, according to records at the University of Texas. Travelers described "hideous howls" of alligators on river banks, hoots and howls of owls and wolves, "silvery notes" of whippoorwills, and the mosquito's "tuneful song."

The subject for League Sunday evening, Feb. 16, was "Pioneer Leaders." The leader for the evening was Mrs. Hattie Green. J. K. Cooley read the scripture. The life stories of various early Christian leaders were given by Weldon Cooley, William Taylor, Virginia Lee Cooley, and Kenneth Green. We wish to invite all who will to attend our Young People's League. Meetings each Sunday evening.

The League sponsored a social at Dovie school house Tuesday evening, Feb. 11. As the guests arrived they were lead to a mock broadcasting station. Each guest was dressed to represent the vocation he planned to carry out in the future. Each person was interviewed by Virginia Lee Cooley, who acted as Master of ceremonies. A few games were played then refreshments consisting of cold drinks and cookies were served.

Dovie wishes to congratulate her boys who took part in the Jones County Fat Stock Show.
